

Anthony Speranza
National Insurance Crime Bureau (NICB)

Mr. Speranza was with the FBI for twenty four years as a Special Agent. He worked various Federal Violations to include Insurance Fraud, Health Care fraud, Public Corruption, Stolen Vehicles and Heavy Equipment, Foreign Counter Intelligence, Organized Crime, Bank Robberies, and worked numerous times as an undercover agent in these types of cases. He was also the Under Cover Coordinator for my field office regarding Under Cover Activities, and provided training to FBI Agents and to State and Local Law Enforcement on these matters.

He is currently with the National Insurance Crime Bureau as a Special Agent conducting investigations regarding Insurance Fraud in the Tampa and Orlando area. He has been with NICB for almost one year, and previous to NICB and the FBI, NICB was called the National Automobile Theft Bureau where he was a Special Agent for seven years. He is a graduate of the University Of Pittsburgh with a degree in the Administration of Criminal Justice and a minor in Psychology.